Strike affects conservancy operations

By Our Staff Reporter

Five Corporation Zones, including Anna Nagar and Ambattur, have been severely impacted in conservancy operations since Aug. 3 as more than 3000 sanitary staff of Chennai Corporation have abstained from work to protest against the privatization of solid waste management.

Two of these zones were privatised last month, and tenders have been floated to privatize operations in Anna Nagar.

Some parts of Anna Nagar and Mogappair were affected as waste was not cleared from bins for over 4 days.

Residents of apartments and gated communities in Mogappair and Nollambur are dumping waste into nearby vacant stretches.

Corporation officials said that waste collection will be streamlined by next week.

She said that, despite having professional degrees and work experience, many are not able to write their resumes in a professional manner, whereas it is the first stepping stone in their career enhancement and getting interview calls, especially in the IT sector and corporate firms.

Due to digitization and advancement in Artificial Intelligence (AI), online assessment and the hiring practices by employers have changed in many ways, so one has to adhere to the latest norms in presenting their resumes, she said.

She added that Resume is a personal branding tool, and it should reflect more of what are you today and not just of what you have done in your past jobs.

Youth held for murdering history-sheeter

By Our Staff Reporter
